The Borough Council of Wellingborough and its wholly owned subsidiary, Wellingborough Bereavement Services Limited have great pleasure in announcing that Nene Valley Crematorium will open for business on Monday 19th September 2016.

The Crematorium is located at 305 Doddington Road, overlooking the picturesque landscape between Millers Park and Great Doddington.

Bookings will be taken from the 5th September either via your Funeral Director or by contacting the Crematorium direct on 01933 229660 or email enquiries@nenevalleycrematorium.co.uk

Leader of the Council Cllr Martin Griffiths said:

“This project has been a tremendous success and we have a superb purpose built facility that will be an asset to the borough and its families for many generations to come.”

Councillor Barry Graves, Chairman of Wellingborough Bereavement Services said:

“The Nene Valley Crematorium is located in a tranquil setting that respects and accommodates the wishes and needs of all of our community.”

The crematorium was built by the construction company Wates who committed to using as many local craftsmen and suppliers as possible to support the delivery of the project.

If you would like a ‘sneak preview’ of our state of the art facility and meet the team which is led by Tracy Lawrence, Manager and Registrar, then a number of public ‘drop in’ viewing sessions have been arranged for the following dates;

Thursday 8th September between 2 and 4 pm
Saturday 10th September between 11am and 1pm
Tuesday 13th September between 10am and 12pm
Tuesday 13th September between 2 and 4pm.

The team at Nene Valley Crematorium would be delighted if you are able to join us.
