4 Discussion

- 4.1 Carol joined the council as a clerical assistant, progressing over the forty years that she has spent here, to the role of Technical Services Team Leader and Authority Address Custodian.
- 4.2 Carol spent some time in the transformation project team in 2010/11, a time that underpinned the fundamental change in the way the council operated services.
- 4.3 More recently Carol has stepped in to help manage the building control service whilst her team provide administrative support to planning, local land charges and building control. This has meant Carol has learnt the fundamentals of a new service area and managed it successfully for four years.
- 4.4 Through Carol's dedication, hard work and commitment to the council she has provided excellent services which have seen her achieve gold standard for the local land charges gazetteer for a number of years running. Local land charges, gazetteer and planning support services are held in high regard and heralded as an exemplar by other councils. Carol continues to champion ICT service improvements and facilitates a regular working group for ICT.
